

CLAIM OF EXEMPTION FROM GARNISHMENT

I am requesting an increased exemption amount, as I am the sole provider of a household comprised of two or more individuals.

I swear or affirm under penalty of perjury that my earnings alone support my household and that no member of my household receives additional income, including, but not limited to (AS 09.38.050(b)):

- Unemployment benefits
- Income from rental property or roommates
- Child support payments
- Social Security benefits
- Pension/retirement income

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the garnished amount is causing undue financial hardship. I have enclosed a letter explaining my financial circumstances, a completed Financial Analysis Form (enclosed), and all required documents as outlined in the Financial Analysis Form.

By signing below, I authorize the Department of Revenue (DOR) and Child Support Services Division (CSSD) to release any records/information to the Alaska Commission on Postsecondary Education (ACPE) upon request. It is my intention for ACPE to receive any information contained in my records that would be available to myself, if requested. This authorization will remain in effect until revoked in writing and submitted to DOR and CSSD.

Definitions

Earnings – Money received by an individual for personal services and denominated as wages, salary, commissions, or otherwise.

Exemption Amount – A dollar threshold allowed by law to reduce the amount of income that would otherwise be garnished.

Household – Two or more individuals who reside together in a single home.

Household Income – The combined gross income of all adult (18 years of age or older) members in a household.

Increased Exemption Amount – A dollar threshold greater than the exemption amount (defined above) that reduces the amount of income that would otherwise be garnished. Individuals who qualify as the sole financial provider of their household are eligible for an increased exemption amount.

Sole Financial Provider – The only provider of income to a household consisting of two or more people.
